

382

complementary therapy sessions were provided at Dot's Place Peel

7026 regional cancer patients and their carers were provided support by our Cancer Support Coordinators

617 cancer patients and their carers attended our Life Now exercise, meditation and yoga classes at no cost

209 cancer patients or their carers received assistance from our practical support services

447 patients were provided with pro bono legal, financial and workplace advice

7855 contacts were received by 13 11 20, our cancer information and support line

150 cancer patients and their carers attended our Social Support Program at Dot's Place Bunbury

$245,527

in financial assistance payments were made to people experiencing hardship while undergoing treatment

5305 country cancer patients and their carers stayed at our Crawford and Milroy Lodges to access treatment in Perth

73,659

hours were contributed by 1788 volunteers across all areas of our work

1221 health professionals, palliative care volunteers and Cancer Council WA staff took part in 82 Palliative and Supportive Care Education events

$1.22m

was raised by over 1900 Australia's Biggest Morning Tea hosts

412 participants hosted a Pink or Girls' Night In fundraising activity, raising over $243,000

1260 community fundraisers raised $1.04m

$47,000

was raised during our Daffodil Day street appeal, with the support of 180 volunteers who "painted the town yellow" at over 120 locations around the state

1921 wigs, turbans, hats and scarves were provided at no cost by our Wig Service to 409 patients

1757

counselling sessions were provided at no cost to people affected by cancer

1126

hours were contributed by 31 volunteers to our free Wig Service for cancer patients

16 telephone dietetics sessions were provided at no cost to people affected by cancer

5289 transport to treatment trips were provided to regional cancer patients and their carers at no cost

$1.41m

was raised by 5255 participants in 11 Relay For Life events across the state

176,020 visits to our MyUV.com.au website for UV information of WA smokers surveyed after Make Smoking History's TV ad went to air either cut down or quit. This is the highest proportion ever recorded for this measure

78%

Eight community services have joined the Make Smoking History program and are working towards implementing sustainable and impactful changes so everyone can access information and support to make smoking history

13 UV meters were implemented across Australia and New Zealand

453,226

page views were received on our Generation SunSmart website for teachers and childcare workers people were reached by our SunSmart van over 27 events over summer

150,000

Two newsletters were distributed to support the work of Aboriginal health professionals trained through our Cancer Education Course and health professionals working with Aboriginal communities

196 people attended a Healthier Workplace WA Lunch 'n' Learn event

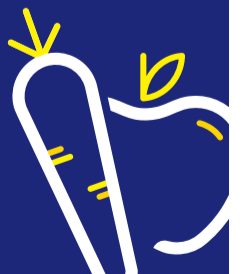

696

new people engaged with the Healthier Workplace WA program, an increase of 24.7% from the previous reporting period

155 people completed the Workplace Health and Wellbeing Coordinator Training

431 WA primary schools are certified in the Crunch&Sip program which encourages a daily break in the classroom for kids to refuel with fresh veggies, fruit and water

$3.7m

of funding was committed to support 68 of WA's best and brightest researchers

Our Regional Education Officers delivered 82 Find Cancer Early presentations to regional WA community groups

Seven additional funding agencies were brought together to support the new Collaborative Cancer Grant Scheme which supports early-to-mid career cancer researchers

More than 2000 consultants, nurses and health professionals attended one of the 38 WACOG convened medical education meetings

More than 300 people attended one of seven cancer update lectures

715 GPs

increased their cancer knowledge via our GP cancer education project

A new partnership was formed with the Royal Flying Doctor Service: Western Operations to broaden the reach of our regional Find Cancer Early campaign

